

Annual Scottish Maritime History Conference Evening Lecture and Reception

Emeritus Professor R.G. Stokes, University of Glasgow.

'British shipbuilding's response to West Germany's shipbuilding resurgence and Japanese competition, 1945-1958'

Venue: Yudowitz Seminar Room 1, Wolfson Medical School, University of Glasgow, University Avenue G12 8QQ,

5-30pm -7-30pm Tuesday 15 October 2024.

Biography

Ray Stokes retired as Chair of Business History and as Director of the Centre for Business History in Scotland, University of Glasgow in May 2024. He has extensive publications on business, environmental, and technological history, particularly on German industrial and technological sectors. He is a former Editor in Chief of the leading journal, Business History. His latest monograph is Ruins to Riches: The Economic Resurgence of Germany and Japan after 1945, (Cambridge University Press, 2024).

To book a place, email Dr Chris Miller at: Christopher.Miller@glasgow.ac.uk

Closing date for bookings 3 October 2024.

